CONTRACTUAL PROVISIONS

The Operator and the Interested Party hereby execute 1 the Subscriber Contract listed below in the table "List of Subscriber Contracts", under which the Operator shall provide to the Interested Party the Basic and Complementary Services, information technology services and the related services (hereinafter collectively the "Services") to the extent agreed by the parties, and the Interested Party undertakes to pay duly and in time the agreed price for such Services.

Precontractual information regarding the individual Services is available at www.t-mobile.cz/ke-stazeni; if you have a statutory right to such information, it is important that you download it for documentation purposes, for future reference, and reproduction in an unaltered form. Precontractual information consists of the Terms and Conditions of the individual Services and the Summary of the Contract (hereinafter jointly referred to as "Precontractual Information").

The Operator and the Interested Party hereby agree on the term of each Subscriber Contract as specified in the table "List of Subscriber Contracts" on the line beside each telephone belonging to the relevant executed Subscriber Contracts. On the Service Activation Date, the Contract becomes effective and the agreed term starts to run. However, if the law requires the fulfilment of another condition for the Contract to become effective, the Contract becomes effective on the date on which the Service is active and the condition required by law has been fulfilled.

The contents of and integral parts of all Subscriber Contracts include the following documents (hereinafter the "Documents"):

- Precontractual information if you have a statutory right to such information,
- the terms and conditions set forth in this form, including conditions agreed in the part of the form titled "Set-up of Services",
- the applicable General Terms and Conditions of T-Mobile Czech Republic a.s. (hereinafter the "General Terms"),
- the applicable Conditions for Processing of Personal, Identification, Operating and Localisation Data,
- the applicable Tariff of Services,,
- Obchodní podmínky služby Data Roaming Limit,

- Obchodní podmínky Platebních služeb T-Mobile,
- Podmínky přenesení čísla,
- T-Mobile Roaming and EU Roaming Terms and Conditions

The priority of the Documents shall be governed by Art. 2.2 of the General Terms and not by the above-mentioned order. All terms and documents are available at www.t-mobile.cz/novyzakaznik.

By signing this Subscriber Contract, the Interested Party acknowledges that it is familiar with all those Documents and agrees with them without reservations. The Provider notifies the Interested Party that some Documents contain provisions that may be considered surprising. Each such provision is highlighted (particularly underlined) in the Documents. The Interested Party declares that all Documents are known to him, that he has read them and the provisions highlighted therein and agrees with them without reservations. The Interested Party undertakes to familiarise itself with the conditions of all Services activated by it during the term of the Subscriber Contract, and these conditions of the Services shall become, upon activation of the Services, integral parts of the relevant Subscriber Contract.

The Prospective Customer and the Operator have agreed that information about the conclusion and amendments of the Customer Agreement shall be sent by the Operator to the Prospective Customer's T-Box in the Prospective Customer's Client Account on the My T-Mobile portal (hereinafter referred to as "T-Box"). Until the activation of a client account on the My T-Mobile portal, the Prospective Customer can find information about the Customer Agreement in a temporary T-Box at www.t-mobile.cz/t-box. To access it, it must enter the Customer Agreement number (if stated at the head of this form), the number of the Prospective Customer's identification document specified in this Customer Agreement, and the country of issue of the document.

The Interested Party and the Operator have agreed that the Subscriber Verification Code is listed in an appendix to this Agreement entitled "Appendix: Subscriber Verification Code". This attachment is available at Můj T-Mobile, in section Moje Smlouva.

The Operator will charge the prices of the Services provided to the Interested Party's in accordance with the Price List of Services in force, and the Interested Party's is obliged to pay the Statements of Services in a due and timely manner. The Operator points out to the Interested Party that if the Interested Party fails to pay a Statement of Services in a due and timely manner, the Operator may claim the costs of collection from the Interested Party. Furthermore, the Interested Party and the Operator agree on a contractual fine defined in Art. 6.1 of the General Terms. The contractual fines may be claimed concurrently.

If the Contract is terminated before the agreed limited term for reasons other than a delay with payment of monetary debts, the Interested Party shall pay to the Operator a financial settlement – an amount equal to the reimbursement of the costs incurred in relation to the telecommunication and equipment provided to the Interested Party under favourable terms and, at the same time, an amount equal to the sum of monthly flat fees outstanding until the end of the agreed Contract term (the relevant price being the basic price of the monthly flat fee with VAT, charged in the last Bill, which is stated in the Tariff of Fees), or the sum of the minimum agreed monthly performance remaining until the end of the agreed Contract term; this part of the payment is deemed to be flat indemnification for early termination of the Contract which was formerly agreed between the parties for a limited period of time. If the Operator charges to the Interested Party the reimbursement of costs incurred in connection with the equipment, the Provider may charge this part of the reimbursement to the Interested Party separately.

The Interested Party shall pay the billed contractual fines and financial settlement duly and in time by the due date stated in the Bill.
