EUROPAEUM

PRAGUE-OXFORD BURSARY STUDY SCHEME

Memorandum of Agreement between Charles University, Prague, Mr Luděk Sekyra, and the Europaeum, October 2016

Memorandum of Agreement

- (i) The Europaeum shall coordinate two student bursaries each year, one for a young research scholar from Oxford to spend up to a month in Prague, and one for a young research scholar from Charles University to spend up to a month in Oxford. Funding will be provided by the Sekyra Group.
- (ii) Each bursary would be worth €1,000, and the scheme would initially run for five years. This would make the total cost €10,000. They would be restricted to the social sciences and humanities. The Europaeum would be responsible for holding the total funds, and for the ensuing distribution of funds to each selected scholar from Prague and Oxford for each of the next five years. In the event of a change of circumstance, the funds could be passed to Charles University or to the Sekyra Group.
- (iii) Oxford and Charles universities will undertake to advertise the Scheme with a deadline (probably in December of each year), with the bursary to be taken up during Jan-June of each academic year. In Prague, it could be advertised in Social Sciences one year, and in Humanities the next, alternating.
- (iv) Final selection shall be done by a joint Oxford-Prague panel of (say) four academic experts involved in the bilateral scheme. It is suggested that the top 2/3 candidates be selected in order of preference by the students' host university, and then confirmed by the partner university.
- (v) The bursaries shall be linked to the new research centres being supported in each University by Mr Luděk Sekyra – and in Oxford students shall be managed through the Europaeum. Students can be linked to a suitable college, as Harris Manchester has said that it is already at capacity.
- (vi) Each student will be expected to manage their own study visit, identifying, in their application, a senior professor to work with, and showing how the study visit would aid their current research work (by attending seminars, doing fieldwork or interviews, using libraries and specialist archives, etc).
- (vii) Each student shall be required to write a short report on their study visit – which could be circulated – outlining what they did, what the benefits were, and how it will help with their future work.
- (viii) The scheme shall be coordinated and managed in Prague by [REDACTED] and in Oxford by [REDACTED]
