---	--

In accordance with a mutual desire to promote international academic, cultural and scientific exchange, School of Life Sciences FHNW and the University of Chemistry and Technology, Prague (UCT Prague), have agreed to cooperate within the framework of the principles mentioned below.

I.

Scientific and educational cooperation shall be undertaken in areas of mutual interest. Such cooperation will be carried out on the basis of equal and mutual advantage.

II.

The cooperation between School of Life Sciences FHNW and UCT Prague will be implemented in the following ways:

- Exchange of pre-graduate, graduate and postgraduate students (Bachelor, Master and PhD students);
- Exchange of teachers for short term teaching assignments;
- Agreements on double degree programs;
- Joint supervision of a doctorate;
- Development of joint research programs;
- Organization of the bilateral joint symposiums, seminars and conferences.

III.

Each University shall ensure, in compliance with its respective laws and regulations, the assistance and support for scholars who are temporarily residing on its territory, under the provision of this memorandum.

IV.

This Memorandum does not result in any financial obligations. Each institution will be responsible for seeking funds to support its involvement in the cooperative activities contemplated under this Memorandum of Understanding, and all such activities will be dependent upon the budgetary appropriations of the parties.

V.

The terms of cooperation for each activity implemented under this Memorandum shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to the initiation of that activity. Any such agreement entered into, as outlined above, will form an Appendix to this Memorandum of Understanding.

VI.

All participants of the exchange programs are required to have a valid health insurance policy covering all medical expenses and a valid insurance covering property damage caused to the host institution for the territory of the host country over the entire period of their stay.

Participants have to fulfill all the conditions required by the immigration authority of the host country.

VII.

The present Agreement was prepared in English in two copies. Both of them have the same legal power.

VIII.

The Agreement is valid for 5 (five) years from the day it was signed. Both parties have right to suggest the amendments to the Agreement. Any of these amendments is valid when made in written form and numbered. The amendment must be confirmed by both parties.

The Agreement can be terminated by either party subject to notice in a written form to be received by the relevant partner no less than 3 months before the expiration of memorandum.
