2.2 The completely deliver includes:

- the delivery of the goods by the seller to the place of destination;
- immediate and free elimination of defects claimed during the warranty period.

2.3 The Buyer undertakes to take over the subject of purchase and pay the purchase price in the amount and by the method according to Article 4 of this contract.

3. Place and time of performance

3.1 The Seller undertakes to deliver the subject of purchase to the headquarters of Nuclear Physics Institute of the CAS, at the address:

Ústav jaderné fyziky AV ČR, v.v.i., Husinec - Řež 130, Řež 250 68, Czech Republic

3.2 The Seller undertakes to perform completely and hand over the aforementioned subject of purchase to the Buyer within 14 weeks since the conclusion of the contract.

3.3 The delivery will include delivery note and transport costs according to the contract of the object of purchase, including basic technical documentation and warranty cards. At the same time, the Seller undertakes to inform the Buyer in a timely manner (at least 3 days) that it intends to hand over the object of purchase.

4. The Price and Payment Terms

4.1 The Buyer undertakes to pay the Seller: 11 702 EUR without VAT.

The purchase price stated in the Contract is fixed and final, and it includes all the costs of the Seller associated with the fulfilment of its obligations under this Contract. If the Seller is headquartered outside the Czech Republic, the Seller shall not specify the VAT amount and the Total Price including VAT and the tax obligation shall be transferred to the Buyer.

4.2 The Buyer shall pay the Seller the purchase price in the agreed amount against the invoice/tax document issued by the Seller and delivered to the Buyer.

4.3 The invoice/tax document is due in 30 days since the day of its delivery to the Buyer. The invoice/tax document shall contain all prerequisites of the tax document according to Act no. 235/2004 Coll., on value added tax, as amended.

- 4.4 The invoice/tax document that does not contain the aforementioned data or contains incorrect or incomplete data may be returned by the Buyer to the Seller before the end of its stipulated maturity period. After the properly issued invoice/tax document is delivered the stipulated maturity period begins to run again.
- 4.5 The annex of the invoice/tax document shall be delivery note of the object of purchase.

5. The Rights and Obligations of the Contractual Parties

- 5.1 The Seller is responsible for the subject of purchase being in compliance with applicable generally binding legal, technical and safety regulations at the time of its delivery.
- 5.2 The Seller shall hand over the subject of the purchase to the Buyer properly and in time. When performing the contract the Seller shall proceed with adequate professional care.
- 5.3 The Seller shall immediately inform the Buyer about all facts that they have identified in the course of the performance of the contract and that may have an influence on the Buyer's interests or may lead to a change in the Buyer's procedures or attitudes.
- 5.4 The Buyer shall provide the Seller with cooperation necessary for the proper and timely provision of the performance under the contract.

6. Takeover of the Subject of Purchase

- 6.1 The title to the subject of purchase is transferred to the Buyer at the moment of takeover. The Seller shall carry the risk of damage to any part of the subject of purchase until the moment of the handover and takeover of the subject of purchase.
- 6.2 The Buyer is entitled not to accept the subject of purchase that does not correspond to the requirements of this contract or of legal regulations. If this is the case, the Buyer shall hand over to or send the Seller a notification stating the reason for refusing to accept the subject of purchase and the period for its elimination. If the notified shortcomings are not eliminated within the determined period the subject of purchase will be considered not delivered.

7. Warranty for Quality

- 7.1 The Seller declares that the delivered device will be brand new, not used, not damaged and its quality will comply with the requirements stipulated by this contract and by legal regulations. The Seller shall prove the origin of the subject of purchase at the Buyer's request. The Seller is also responsible for the delivered device not to be encumbered with any rights of third parties, especially rights arising from industrial or other intellectual property.
- 7.2 The Seller shall provide a warranty for quality, i.e. the undertaking that the supplied equipment will be fit to be used for the purpose described in the tender documentation for the period of the warranty and that it will maintain the required properties for this entire period. The warranty period is 12 months.

- 7.3 The warranty period begins to run on the day of the delivery of the subject of purchase to the Buyer, i.e. on the day the handover delivery note is signed by the Buyer.
- 7.4 If the subject of performance has any defects the Buyer is entitled to:
- request the elimination of the defects by the supply of a new subject of purchase without defects, if this is not inadequate given the nature of the defect, or by the supply of the missing part of the subject of purchase,
 - request the elimination of the defects by repairing the subject of purchase, c) request an adequate discount from the purchase price, or
 - cancel the contract.
- 7.5 Under all circumstances the Buyer has the discretion to choose from the entitlements specified in par. 7.4 of this article. However, the Buyer shall notify the Seller of their choice in a written notification of defects sent to the Seller or without undue delay after this notification.
- 7.6 The Seller shall always eliminate defects in the subject of purchase without delay, however at the latest with the period of 60 work days after they are claimed. All costs relating to the elimination of defects shall be borne by the Seller. If the Seller does not eliminate the defects, the Buyer is entitled to secure the elimination of defects via a third person at the Seller's expense and the Seller shall refund the costs to the Buyer within 15 days after they are claimed by the Buyer in writing.
- 7.7 The Seller is not responsible for defects in the subject of purchase occurring because of common wear and tear, unprofessional use and handling of the subject of purchase or the use of the subject of purchase for other purposes than the intended ones.
- 7.8 The seller must provide at the request of the Buyer post-warranty service for a period of at least 2 years.

8. Sanctions

- 8.1 If the agreed deadline for the supply of the subject of purchase is not observed the the buyer is entitled to demand payment of a contractual penalty in the amount of 30 EUR for every even only started day of delay.
- 8.2 If being in delay with the elimination of identified defects the Seller undertakes to pay the Buyer a contractual penalty in the amount of 10 EUR for every even only started day of the delay with the elimination of defects.
- 8.3 If the payment for an invoice is delayed the Seller is entitled to charge the Buyer an interest on late payment in the amount of 0.02 % of the outstanding sum without VAT for every even only started day of delay.
- 8.4 The defaulting contractual party shall pay the sanctions on the basis of a notification delivered by the entitled contractual party with the maturity period of 30 days since the day of the delivery to the defaulting contractual party.
- 8.5 The payment of the contractual penalty is without prejudice to the Buyer's right to request damages exceeding the contractual penalty and to the Seller's obligation to pay them.

9. Cancellation of the Contract

- 9.1 This contract may be cancelled in the event of a serious violation of the obligations by one contractual party, if such violation is considered serious by this contract or by law. Cancellation of the contract becomes effective on the day of the delivery of a written cancellation notification to the other contractual party.
- 9.2 The Buyer is entitled to cancel the contract especially:
- a) if they find out that there is a delay with the handover of the subject of purchase,
 - b) if they find out that there is a delay with the elimination of defects in the subject of purchase.

10. Final Provisions

- 10.1 The legal relations between the contractual parties established by this contract and not specifically regulated by it shall be governed by applicable provisions of Act no. 89/2012 Coll., the Civil Code, as amended, and by other generally binding legal regulations.
- 10.2 The contractual parties mutually undertake to cooperate and provide one another with all information necessary for the proper and timely performance of their obligations.
- 10.3 The contractual parties undertake to make maximum efforts to eliminate mutual disputes arising on the basis of this contract or in relation to it and to settle them especially via authorized persons. If the contractual parties do not agree on the method of how to settle a mutual dispute, any contractual party is entitled to submit such dispute to the subject-matter and locally competent court.
- 10.4 This contract becomes valid and effective on the day it is signed by both contractual parties.
- 10.5 This contract is made in 4 counterparts (and in this case each contractual party shall receive two).
- 10.6 All changes to this contract may only be made via written annexes approved by all contractual parties. Any change to this contract in other than the written form is thus excluded. For this purpose the exchange of e-mail or other electronic messages will not be considered the written form.
- 10.7 Questions not regulated by this contract shall be governed by applicable provisions of Act no. 89/2012 Coll., the Civil Code (under Czech law).
