Appendix 2 – Detailed description of the automation platform

The automation platform will be able to automatically perform biochemical analyses/assays according to the specified program, i.e. control all devices listed below, transfer microtiter plates and tip boxes between these devices, and collect measured data. The capacity of the platform will allow the processing of up to 100 test plates (plus the required number of tip boxes and library analyte solution plates) in a single protocol so that free machine time will be used during the incubation steps to prepare another plate. The platform will be able to run and execute another protocol while another or the same protocol is running, and work with instruments that are not currently needed in the running protocol to make optimal use of machine time during incubations, if the capacity of the Assembly allows it.

List of devices:

- Owned by the Client
 - Labcyte Echo 550,
 - Roche LC480 LightCycler,
 - Agilent PlateLoc Sealer,
 - Agilent Bravo Liquid Handler,
 - Formulatrix Mantis,
 - PerkinElmer MicroBeta2
- Parts of this tender
 - Storage carousel
 - Peeling station
 - Contact-less washing station
 - Cell Culture Incubator
 - Centrifuge
 - Dispensing System
 - Automatic microtiter plate reader

The automation platform will be able to perform the following protocol using the devices listed above. The supplier will provide all necessary digital information (control software protocol files) to reproduce the protocol. The protocol is as follows:

Protocol - 384 well plates, operation on each well

1. Add 20 μ l of cell suspension (Dispensing system)
2. Incubation: 1 - 24 hours (1st optional parameter, Incubator for cell cultures, 37 ° C, 5% CO₂ v / v)
3. Add 2.5-20 nl of substance from the library (2nd optional parameter, Labcyte Echo 550)
4. Incubation: 1 - 72 hours (3rd optional parameter, Incubator for cell cultures, 37 ° C, 5% CO₂ v / v)
5. Add 20 μ l of Reagent 1 (Dispensing system)
6. Incubation: 30 sec with stirring at room temperature
7. Add 0 - 5 μ l of reagent 2 (4th optional parameter, Dispensing system)
8. Incubation: 30 sec with stirring at room temperature
