Memorandum of Understanding for the establishment and operation of the Sponsoring Consortium for Open Access Publishing in Particle Physics (hereinafter SCOAP³)¹
(hereinafter the “MoU”)

between

THE EUROPEAN ORGANIZATION FOR NUCLEAR RESEARCH (“CERN”), an Intergovernmental Organization with its seat at Geneva, Switzerland, as the Host Organization of SCOAP³ and SCOAP³ Partner, represented by its Director-General, [REDACTED]

on the one hand

and

THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SCOAP³ PARTNERS (THE “REPRESENTATIVES”)
(as listed in Annex 1 to the MoU),

on the other hand

hereinafter individually referred to as “Party” and collectively as “Parties”.

Preamble

- (a) In line with its mission of “[...] sponsoring of international co-operation in nuclear research, including co-operation outside the Laboratories [which] may include in particular [...] the dissemination of information”, and in accordance with the principle of openness “[...] the results of its experimental and theoretical work shall be published or otherwise made generally available”, both enshrined in its Convention², CERN has initiated a process to pursue open access to peer-reviewed literature in the Field. First, broad consultation in 2005 and 2006 between researchers, publishers and funding agencies identified author fees as a barrier to open access and suggested that open access to existing high quality peer-reviewed journals in the Field should be introduced by a redirection of subscription fees. In 2007, an international working party delivered a report (in Annex 8) describing a possible business model for a future consortium to be called SCOAP³ (Sponsoring Consortium for Open Access Publishing in Particle Physics) to achieve this redirection, inspired by the collaborative models that the HEP community has used for decades to design, build, operate and exploit global research infrastructures. From 2007 to 2010, libraries and funding agencies from 25 countries signed Expressions of Interest to support the future SCOAP³ consortium (template in Annex 7). In 2011, representatives of these stakeholders agreed that CERN should start a formal procurement process for peer-review, open access and other publication services, pending new commitments to join SCOAP³. A Steering Committee was formed to guide this process.

- (b) In its capacity as Host Organization and acting for the benefit of SCOAP³, CERN has issued the invitation to tender IT-3827/GS for the award of contracts to publishers, for the provision of peer-review, open access and other publication services for the benefit of SCOAP³ (technical specification in Annex 5). The completion of the tendering process based on the said invitation to tender resulted in the identification of the publishers listed in Annex 3 for a potential collaboration with SCOAP³ for a first tendering cycle.
- (c) The SCOAP³ operation is intended as a continuing going concern for the provision of open access to the literature of the Field. The contracts awarded to publishers for the first tendering cycle will cover the three-year period from 1 January 2014 until 31 December 2016 (form of contract with Publishers in Annex 4). It is intended to issue a new invitation to tender during that period for the award of contracts to publishers for a second tendering cycle, and then regularly afterwards.
- (d) SCOAP³ Partners (as listed in Annex 2), represented in the MoU by the Representatives, will make annual payments into the SCOAP³ Fund which will be used to pay the Publishers. SCOAP³ Partners will recover monies through reductions in the subscription and licensing fees of HEP journals that publish articles falling within the framework of SCOAP³, as provided in the contracts with the Publishers.
- (e) Capitalized terms shall have the meaning assigned to them hereunder:
 - “Addendum” means the document specific and confidential to each Representative that defines the details of the participation in SCOAP³ of the SCOAP³ Partners listed within it;
 - “Field” means the field of high-energy physics;
 - “HEP” means high-energy physics, also called particle physics;
 - “Host Organization” means CERN as the legal entity which leverages its resources to build and operate the SCOAP³ infrastructure, including but not limited to: financial, legal and administrative procedures; implementation and maintenance of the SCOAP³ Repository; the management of the contracts with the Publishers;

 - “Publishers” means the publishers to whom a contract has been awarded for the provision of the Services;
 - “Reconciliation Facility” means the secure online database provided by CERN which records names of SCOAP³ Partners and enables Representatives and Publishers to upload details of subscription reductions;
 - “Repository” means the digital library operated by CERN where Publishers will timely deposit all articles published in the SCOAP³ framework, for further redistribution, in addition to publishing them Open Access on their own platform;

- 8.3 CERN as Host Organization and any SCOAP³ Partner may withdraw from SCOAP³ at the end of each tendering cycle by giving notice in writing to the SCOAP³ Governing Council at the latest four (4) weeks after notification by the SCOAP³ Governing Council of its decision to start a subsequent tendering cycle.
- 8.4 In case of extraordinary circumstances, a SCOAP³ Partner may withdraw from SCOAP³ by giving not less than twelve (12) months notice in writing to the SCOAP³ Governing Council. The withdrawing SCOAP³ Partner shall agree with the SCOAP³ Executive Committee on a reasonable compensation to SCOAP³, which the SCOAP³ Executive Committee shall submit to the SCOAP³ Governing Council for approval.

Clause 9: Disputes

- 9.1 The primary mechanism for resolution of any disputes related to the subject matter of the MoU, including but not limited to disputes of financial nature, shall be discussion between the SCOAP³ Executive Committee and the party(ies) concerned. Should this not prove fruitful, the dispute shall be resolved by arbitration by the Chairperson of the SCOAP³ Governing Council.

9.2 It is understood and agreed, however, that the liability of each party to the MoU shall in no event exceed an amount equivalent to the amount of its annual payment to the SCOAP³ Fund, which was agreed upon before the dispute arose.

9.3 This provision shall survive termination of the MoU, howsoever caused.

Clause 10: Major amendments

Major Amendments to the main body of the MoU agreed upon by CERN and the SCOAP³ Governing Council pursuant to Clause 3.B.ii shall be subject to signature by the Parties.

Clause 11: Implementation of the MoU

11.1 For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood that the SCOAP³ Partners that are represented by the Representatives shall benefit from all rights set out in the MoU, and in particular in Clause 5.

11.2 An Addendum to the MoU will include a list of SCOAP³ Partners represented by each Representative.
