Re: Industrial Co-operation Department – Janes Renewal - Continuation

As you are aware the Industrial Co-operation Department, Ministry of Defence Of the Czech Republic ("your company") and Jane's Group UK Limited) ("Janes") (the "Order Form") is due 1st November 2021. ("Expiry Date").

In an effort to accommodate your company's business needs and administrative process for signing the Order Form, JANE'S is willing to permit the continued use of the products licensed to your company under the Order Form ("Products") under the same user terms and conditions as set out in the Agreement for a period of 30 calendar days commencing on the Expiry Date ("Extension Period").

If, at the end of the Extension Period, your company chooses not to renew the Order Form, the license to use the Products shall terminate immediately and your company shall (i) discontinue all use of the Product(s); (ii) destroy any items relating to the Product (including but not limited to data such as printed documents, software, and documentation) and purge any Product data, including all downloaded documents, from all electronic media; and (iii) provide written notice to JANE'S certifying that your company has complied with the obligations above. In this case, JANE'S will render an invoice for the use of the Products during the Extension Period with the fees charged pursuant to the Order Form. This invoice is payable within thirty (30) days after the date of the invoice.

Please return a signed copy of this letter to confirm your acceptance of the terms and conditions contained herein no later than seven (7) business days from the date of this letter. In any event, continued access of the Products beyond the Expiry Date shall constitute an implied acceptance of the abovedescribed extension together with the other terms of this letter.

If you have any questions or concerns, do not hesitate to contact me directly at paul.how@janes.com

Kind regards,

Accepted on Date: 2nd November 2021
