

Attachment to the License Agreement between

Georg Thieme Verlag KG, Rüdigerstr. 14, 70469 Stuttgart, Germany (hereinafter „Publisher“)

and

University of Chemistry and Technology, Technická 1905/5, 166 28 Prague 6, Czech Republic
(hereinafter „Licensee“)

The Publisher and the Licensee have agreed to extend the License Agreement, concluded between them on 5 February 2016, to the Licensed Works stated below. With respect to such Licensed Works, the Publisher and the Licensee amend and supplement the License Agreement as follows:

a) Cf. 1.1 Licensed Works

Pharmaceutical Substances

online reference work

(available at: <https://Pharmaceutical-substances.thieme.com>)

According to the Pharmaceutical Substances brochure.

b) Cf. 1.1 Sites and IP-addresses of the licensee:

All sites in the Czech Republic where the University of Chemistry and Technology, Prague operates at the time of signature in December 2022.

IP address: xxxxx

A Site is defined as one campus or physical location with a specific address. Within a Site the terminals are connected by a local area network or similar means.

The signatory confirms that access to the Licensed Works is strictly limited to the Sites and IP addresses as specified in this Attachment.

c) Cf. 1.1 Authorized Users:

Authorized Users are defined as permanent or temporary employees, including students, who work or study within the premises of the sites given above.

Making available the Licensed Works to the Authorized Users outside the locations of the Licensee (e. g., remote access via virtual private network) shall be permitted.

Walk-in members of the general public are considered Authorized Users when using Licensee's terminal within the sites of the Licensee given above.

d) Cf. 1.3 Copyright:

The usage of the material licensed under this Agreement is subject to the following:

The entire copyright in the material licensed shall be and remain in the name of the Publisher, subject only to the rights granted herein. Licensee shall take all necessary measures to protect said copyright in all places where Licensee provides access to the licensed material, including any internet-based network or domain.

In particular, duty of care includes maintaining an appropriate standard of confidentiality. Authorized Users may not divulge, copy, release, sell, or loan any confidential information except as properly authorized by the Publisher. Such information includes but is not limited to any password assigned to Authorized Users in the course of a registration process to access our online systems.

Licensee shall, upon gaining knowledge of alleged rights infringements or at the Publisher's reasonable request, investigate alleged cases of misuse or infringement within the frame of this Agreement, including but not limited to sharing of user credentials with non-authorized users or any other case of facilitating access to Publisher's server for non-authorized users. Licensee shall report to the Publisher providing as much information about the breach of security and unauthorized access and respond to such cases by taking appropriate measures within 10 working days of receiving notice from the Publisher to terminate said misuse or infringement. In the event Licensee fails to respond to such incidents in a timely manner the Publisher shall be entitled to terminate access to the licensed works for IP addresses identified as having been used to engage in the above misuse or infringement.

e) Cf. 2 Date of Provision

01.01.2023

f) Cf. 3.1 Annual License Fee

The license fee for the year 2023 is EURO 3.732,- excl. VAT.

g) Cf. 3.1 Material Changes

An additional and separate License Agreement is needed if the Licensee intends to include Sites that are not part of this agreement.

h) Cf. 5.1 Termination of the License Agreement on the first occasion effective 31.12.2023.

i) Additional Agreement

The terms of the License Agreement, including its Attachments, may be disclosed or published if such disclosure or publication is required by the mandatory law of the country in which any of the parties is domiciled.
