Cantata Bio, LLC and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Dovetail Genomics and Arc Bio make the offer described herein.

- PLEASE READ: Purchase Order Requirements: All orders MUST include: Quotation Number, Ship to and Bill to contact details: name, phone, email addresses. Purchase Orders missing this information will delay shipment. Cannot ship to PO boxes.
- *Payable in US Dollars, inclusive of wire and bank fees. Price does not include any applicable international duties or taxes, or applicable US sales tax; any such taxes or fees will be added to the invoice.
- International Shipment Planning, if applicable: The kit is perishable and must be maintained at a temperature of +4c refrigerated. Cantata packaging will maintain proper temperature for up to 5 days. If the delivery will take longer than five days, the frozen gel packs must be replaced with gel packs that have been frozen at -20c for at least 16 hours. Dry ice may also be required for some items and will be replenished as needed and storage requirement is -25c to 15c. If receipt of shipment could exceed 5 days, package should be stored in freezer. Cold chain handling carrier service may be required, and will increase the flat rate shipping prices quoted.
