- Any complaints must be brought to InternsPlus attention, in writing, during the period of the programme. InternsPlus cannot give consideration to complaints brought to their notice after the completion of the programme.
- InternsPlus is responsible for the quality of the services provided. The quality of the provided services will be controlled by InternsPlus staff and the accompanying person of SSTE who is obliged to inform the SSTE management at the beginning of the mobility and will be regularly monitored during the work placement/mobility in the companies/host families and through interviews and communication with participants.
- InternsPlus will make every effort to provide contracted services. In case that any service cannot be provided for reasons beyond InternsPlus's control, such as force majeure, another alternative will be provided or the money will be refunded by mutual agreement.
- In case of cancellation or changes in the schedule of the agreed services by either party due to unforeseen events, both parties of the contract undertake to make every effort to agree on an alternative to the agreed services or on an alternative date.
- The agreed amount will be paid in two instalments and the supplement will be paid to InternsPlus after a week of mobility in Ireland and after assessing that InternsPlus has fully fulfilled its obligations and the terms of the contract. In case of default on the agreed conditions and the quality of the services provided, InternsPlus undertakes to make immediate efforts to rectify the things in order to comply with the agreed conditions and the quality of the services provided. In case of insufficient performance or non-performance of obligations, InternsPlus undertakes to return the entire invoiced amount, including the deposit. The registration fee / deposit will also be refunded in full if InternsPlus is unable to provide the services provided in the contract.
- InternsPlus will use their best endeavours to provide the services contracted for. In the event that any of the services cannot be provided for reasons beyond InternsPlus' control, then either an alternative will be provided or a refund made, at InternsPlus' sole discretion.
- If a quoted price is itemised, this is for budgetary purposes only and does not constitute a condition of the contract.
- If the contract is a fixed price contract, the amount invoiced will be the total amount contracted for, without itemisation.
- If the contract is a variable price contract, the amount invoiced will be on the basis agreed, and copies of relevant invoices and supporting documentation will be made available on request.
- If any person who is contracted to be in the programme either fail to commence, or leave before completion, for any reason, then InternsPlus may, at its sole discretion, offer a partial refund in respect of that person or persons.
- Work Experience placements are conditional upon the participant having an adequate capability in the English Language. InternsPlus can take no responsibility for the unsuitability of such a placement if the participant does not have a satisfactory capability in the English language.
- InternsPlus does not accept liability for personal injury of any participant, howsoever caused. InternsPlus does not accept liability for the loss or damage of any property belonging to or travelling with any participant. InternsPlus does not accept any responsibility for losses or additional expenses owing to delays or alterations in travel services, weather, sickness, strikes or any other causes.
- SSTE is responsible for ensuring that each mobility participant has complex foreign travel insurance for the host country for the entire period of the mobility, namely insurance for medical expenses abroad, assistance services, accident insurance including repatriation, liability insurance for damage to health and property.
- InternsPlus' liability is limited to the contract amount. No third party or consequential liabilities are accepted.
- This contract is made under EU law.

AGREEMENT

The signatory understands and accepts that this proposal offers the above facilities for participants for the period agreed only and that the information pertaining to accommodation and career training placements is to be used for this programme only.

The signatory further agrees that s/he will not attempt to contact any of the accommodation or career training providers directly either in relation to this programme or any future programme, and that all
