I.

Subject of the Contract

1. The Performer undertakes to give one performance of the production Spartakus, on 14. April 2023 at 19:00 on the stage of Komedia theatre.
2. The Organizer undertakes to pay the Performer remuneration for the aforementioned staging in accordance with this contract.
3. The Performer provides the discharge of obligations arising from this contract at its own expense and responsibility.

II.

Price and Payment Terms

1. The Organizer shall pay for The Performer services a net performance fee set to EUR 36000,- (in words: thirty six thousand-euros) which corresponds to the gross fee of EUR 36706. This performance fee includes one day with set up, rehearsals and performance. Total amount of the sums above will hereafter be referred to as “the fee”. The fee shall be inclusive of all taxes payable by the Organizer in the country of origin.

The fee has these parts:

- a) EUR 4706,- the fee for public performing artists. Incomes from the personally performed activities of artists are taxed with the withholding tax of 15%, in this case EUR 706. The duty to pay this tax has the Organizer. The performing artists will get net amount of EUR 4.000 (four thousand euros).

- b) EUR 32000 EUR,- the production fee. MDP undertakes to pay VAT on the gross amount in accordance with the rate applicable on the date of the taxable supply or the producer provides confirmation that he is exempt from VAT in his country of tax residence.

Payment of the fee shall be made via wire transfer upon receipt of the invoice following the final performance, during one week after the performance. The Producer will send to the Organizer the receipt with gross amount and the organizer will pay the Producer netto amount.

As a condition of applying the tax rates above, the Producer shall present a valid certificate of his tax residence issued by the competent authority in Poland, where the Artist is a tax resident. If this document is not submitted, the remuneration will be taxed at a withholding tax of 35%.

2. The royalties, music and artistic rights are included in the fee for the performance.
3. Taxation of the remuneration will be carried out in compliance with the applicable regulations of the Czech Republic (CR), as the case may be on the basis of the relevant provisions of the double taxation avoidance agreement concluded between the Czech Rep. and Poland.
4. Both parties have agreed on the application of SHA (shared) bank fees to all payments arising from this contact made to accounts outside the Czech Rep.
5. On signature the Performer provides to the Organizer the confirmation of the tax domicile.
6. The Performer provides evidence that it is a public institution with a registered office in Poland (confirmation that the Performer was not established for business purposes). A copy of the evidence is an integral part of the contract as appendix no. 4.
7. Income from ticket sale belongs to the Organizer.

Appendix no. 1

Training in fire safety and occupational safety for visiting artistic groups at Městská divadla pražská, příspěvková organizace, V Jámě 699/1, 110 00 Praha 1

A.

In the interests of fire safety, all visiting artistic workers at the ORGANIZER are obliged:

1. To conduct themselves during work and other activities in such a way as not to cause a fire, and to comply with fire safety regulations and related orders, prohibitions and instructions issued to them. To familiarize themselves with the fire safety code of the workplace, the ORGANIZER's fire-alarm procedures and the evacuation plan.
2. When a fire is sighted, to extinguish it without delay using available extinguishing agents, or if this is not possible to raise the fire alarm as a matter of urgency and summon help in accordance with the fire-alarm procedures. In the ORGANIZER's buildings a fire should be reported at the porter's lodge of the theatre, the fire-registration office. In preventing and fighting fire and other natural disasters or accidents, everyone is obliged to provide the necessary personal and material assistance when directed to do so by the person in charge of the fire-fighting effort (see Act 67/2001 Coll. § 18 and 19).
3. Every worker is obliged to report the outbreak of any fire in the workplace to a senior employee or to the fire-registration office.
4. To ensure that after the completion of work the workplace was in a fire-safe condition and to announce faults which could cause an outbreak of fire to a senior employee as a matter of urgency.
Smoking is strictly prohibited in the ORGANIZER's buildings. One exception is the smoking room in the Komedie Theatre. Buildings are clearly marked with the safety notice "Zákaz kouření" ("No Smoking"). It is forbidden to use cookers or other appliances which are not the property of the ORGANIZER in the ORGANIZER's buildings.

B.

In the interests of OSH, all visiting artistic workers at the ORGANIZER are obliged:

1. To comply with legal regulations for ensuring occupational safety and health (OSH) with which they have been duly familiarized.
2. To conduct themselves in such a way as not to endanger their own health or the health of their fellow workers.
3. To treat any injury correctly (first-aid kits are located in the theatre) and report it immediately to the nearest senior employee (stage manager), who will make an entry in the "Performance Report".
4. Not to consume alcoholic beverages and not to use other intoxicating substances in the ORGANIZER's workplaces, not to report for work under their influence, and to comply with the ban on smoking.
5. Not to carry out any work on electrical equipment unless the worker has the prescribed qualification for this (Decree No. 50/1978 Coll.), to strictly confine themselves to operating only machinery and equipment for which the worker has the relevant authorization and training. Not to remove covers and interfere with live parts of their own accord – in case of malfunction immediately switch off the machine or equipment and report the fault to a senior employee.
Only competent persons can carry out work on electrical systems.
6. To notify their superior of any deficiencies or faults which could pose a risk to OSH and take reasonable steps to eliminate them.
7. To submit to examinations carried out by senior employees of the ORGANIZER, safety technicians or government bodies in order to ascertain whether workers are under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substances.
A designed worker from the guest theatre is responsible for carrying out training.
