General information

Sector: nationalLibrary

Focus area: engineeringAndTechnology

Mission of the organization: We at NTK serve the research and higher education communities as well as members of the professional and general publics in a professional and friendly manner. We help create and nurture an intellectual environment in which information is transformed into knowledge while supporting research and development, while additionally fostering the learning process. We collect, create, and reliably store knowledge and facilitate access and communication to it through trusted systems and strategies. We offer a warm, inviting, and stimulating environment, both physically and virtually. We are continuously educating ourselves and assist others in their ongoing development.

Reason for joining DataCite: To be able to lead the Czech national DataCite consortium and help to expand use of DOIs and DataCite's services in the Czech Republic.
