Dear Ms. Gunia,

We are very pleased to inform you that your manuscript referenced above has been accepted for publication in NeuroImage.

Are you submitting research which contains statistical mapping produced by MRI and PET studies? NeuroVault is a public repository of brain activation maps supported by the INCF. You can freely share your data by uploading images by visiting neurovault.org.

Many thanks for submitting your paper to NeuroImage. We look forward to receiving further papers from you in the future.

We encourage authors of original research papers to share the research objects – including raw data, methods, protocols, software, hardware and other outputs – associated with their paper. More information on how our open access Research Elements journals can help you do this is available at <https://www.elsevier.com/authors/tools-and-resources/research-elements-journals?>

Reviewers' comments:

Reviewer #1: The authors have addressed my comments, therefore I am happy to recommend the article for publication.

At Elsevier, we want to help all our authors to stay safe when publishing. Please be aware of fraudulent messages requesting money in return for the publication of your paper. If you are publishing open access with Elsevier, bear in mind that we will never request payment before the paper has been accepted. We have prepared some guidelines (<https://www.elsevier.com/connect/authors-update/seven-top-tips-on-stopping-apc-scams>) that you may find helpful, including a short video on Identifying fake acceptance letters (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o518thD9XtE>). Please remember that you can contact Elsevier's Researcher Support team (<https://service.elsevier.com/app/home/supporthub/publishing/>) at any time if you have questions about your manuscript, and you can log into Editorial Manager to check the status of your manuscript (https://service.elsevier.com/app/answers/detail/a_id/29155/c/10530/supporthub/publishing/kw/status/).

In compliance with data protection regulations, you may request that we remove your personal registration details at any time. (Remove my information/details). Please contact the publication office if you have any questions.
