IV.

1. The Visiting Company may cancel the performance only in the event of force majeure, particularly a proven serious illness of one of the main performers, if a suitable replacement cannot be arranged at a reasonable standard.
2. If the Visiting Company cancels the performance for other reasons, it is obliged to inform the Organiser immediately and reimburse PTO for the expenses incurred in preparing the performance or necessary for securing an alternative performance.
3. The Organiser has the right to cancel a contractually agreed performance (participation of a visiting company in the festival) if the Visiting Company fails to comply with the contractually agreed conditions or if the performance or the festival's quality is seriously compromised.
4. All emergency situations that arise during the preparation for the performance or during the festival will be resolved through an agreement to ensure the festival programme is upheld and the quality of the festival is not compromised.

5. In the event that either party fails to perform any of their obligations under this Contract or causes damage to the property of the other party, the party that failed to fulfil their obligation or caused the damage shall be liable for the damage caused. The damage shall be fully compensated to the other party. The Organiser is entitled to set off claims for damages against the monetary claims of the Visiting Company.

6. The parties undertake to diligently comply with the conditions of this Contract to ensure the successful conduct of the festival.

7. The parties acknowledge that pursuant to Act No. 340/2015 Coll., this Contract will be published in the Register of Contracts. Only the Organiser is entitled to publish the Contract in the Register of Contracts within 30 days from its conclusion, according to the procedure set out in the Act. If the Organiser does not publish this Contract within this period, any party to the Contract is entitled to publish it in accordance with the procedure set out by the Act on the Register of Contracts. The Organiser is entitled to redact information in the Contract in accordance with the Act on the Register of Contracts, specifically, but not exclusively, information it considers its business secrets.

8. This Contract becomes effective on the date of its signing by both parties and is drawn up in two counterparts.
