Manage your lab supplied with
Inventory Manager

It's time to reinvent the way you manage your lab's inventory. With Avantor's Inventory Manager, join the researchers moving from cluttered spreadsheets to online digital management. It's the right tool to ensure you know where your lab supplies are and that each lab has all the products needed to keep your vital science moving forward. Get started by creating a free digital stockroom.

You will be able to:

- Track inventory for purchased items
- Calculate replenishment quantities required for your next order
- Share inventory status and other stockroom tools with colleagues
