For the Products stated in the attached Appendix A. [attach order confirmation, M1 Certificate or separate document showing the products defined with Type no and Serial no / License ID]

1 APPLICATION AND DEFINITIONS

- 1.1 This Agreement with Brüel & Kjær applies to Universities and other Higher Education Institutions or other Educational/Academic Customers ("Educational Licensee") who has purchased the products stated in Appendix A, including software licences ("the Products") with special educational discounts.
- 1.2 This Agreement is supplementary to any to the Products related Software Licensing Agreements, Maintenance and Support Agreements and Brüel & Kjær's Terms and Conditions for Sale and Supply, these agreements are separate and independent agreements, and breach of these agreements will not entitle the Educational Licensee to any remedies regarding this Supplementary Agreement, including termination thereof.

2 SCOPE OF USE

- 2.1 The Products sold under this Agreement can be used or applied solely by faculty members and students of the Educational Licensee for non-commercial educational and research purposes in the pursuit of its academic research activities, including: teaching, research and other similar non-commercial purposes. Under no circumstances shall the Products be used for any commercial purposes, including any use or application, which will economically benefit the Educational Licensee or any third party directly or indirectly.
- 2.2 The Educational Licensee is responsible for ensuring that the Products are not used for commercial purposes by any faculty members or students of the Educational Licensee or any third party and that access to the Products and any systems wherein the Products are integrated are secured against exploitation for commercial use or application. Expressly excluded are any right on the part of the Educational Licensee to sell, license, lease or otherwise transfer the Products or to allow any other university, college, educational institution or third party to use the Products and any right on the part of faculty members or students to use the Products for individual purposes unrelated to those taken on by the Educational Licensee.
- 2.3 Brüel & Kjær reserves the right to alter the Products to reflect that the Products are solely for non-commercial use or application.

- 2.4 Any use or application for other purposes than defined in 2.1 will constitute a material breach of this Supplementary Agreement and any related Software Licence Agreements and/or Maintenance and Support Agreements and Brüel & Kjær reserves the right to terminate this Supplementary Agreement and any related Software Licence Agreements and/or Maintenance and Support Agreements without notice.
- 2.5 In the event of termination under 2.4 Brüel & Kjær reserves the right to claim compensation and/or damages which as a minimum shall be fixed as the full price for the Products on standard commercial terms.
- 2.6 The Educational Licensee shall have and retain full control over the use of the Products and accordingly acknowledges and agrees that the Educational Licensee shall be solely responsible for the use of same. The Educational Licensee further acknowledges and agrees that Brüel & Kjær shall have no liability to the Educational Licensee, or any third party, for any ordinary, special or consequential damages or losses which might arise, directly or indirectly, by reason of the Educational Licensee's use of the Products.

3 TERM

- 3.1 This Supplementary Agreement shall be in force for the lifetime of the Products or in relation to Software Licences as long as the licences are valid.
- 3.2 In the event of the expiration or termination of this Agreement, the Educational Licensee shall immediately return to Brüel & Kjær all executable codes, versions of the Products and all manuals and other descriptive materials supplied to the Educational Licensee by Brüel & Kjær and copies thereof and still in the Educational Licensee's possession. The Educational Licensee shall not make any further use of the Products thereafter.
