Article 3

- 3.1 All other stipulations of the original Contract remain unchanged.
- 3.2 Should any provision of this Amendment No. 1 be held by the Contracting parties, the court or any other competent bodies as invalid or unenforceable, then such provision will be invalid only in the affected and narrowest possible extent, and the remaining parts, meaning, and impacts thereof, as well as the remaining provisions of this Amendment No. 1 will remain valid. In such case, the Contracting parties will proceed in a way so that the purpose of the provisions considered as held by the Contracting parties, the court or any other competent bodies as invalid is respected in maximum possible extent and legally binding for the parties in the form allowing legal enforceability thereof. The Contracting parties also agree that any invalid or unenforceable provision of this Amendment No. 1 will be replaced by a new provision whose meaning will be closest to the relevant invalid or unenforceable provision.
- 3.3 Contracting parties declare that they conclude this Amendment No. 1 of their free will, they have read its content and as evidence of their consent to its wording they voluntarily sign it as correct.
- 3.4 The Amendment No. 1 is drawn up in two identical counterparts in English. Each Contracting party shall receive one counterpart of the Amendment. This Amendment No. 1 shall become valid and effective on the day of its signing.
