MAN Energy Solutions is committed to complying with all applicable Ship Recycling Regulations and Conventions. Therefore, MAN Energy Solutions asks all of its suppliers to submit a Material Declaration and a Suppliers Declaration of Conformity to MAN Energy Solutions within two weeks of acceptance of the order in accordance with the requirements of MAN Guideline FK0512 which explains how to upload the requested Material Declaration and a Suppliers Declaration of Conformity on MAN Energy Solutions SE upload Website. MAN Guideline FK0512 is available on MAN Documentation website under the following link:
<https://www.man-es.com/documentation-/mandocumentation>

Choose on the MAN Documentation website the red button #IMO Ship Recycling# which enables access to MAN guide FK0512 which includes the guidance and the link to the upload website.

The "Quality requirements for the supplier" according to the guideline FK0922 rev. 04.02.2019 apply

The Suppliers# failure to submit a Material Declaration in time will be deemed to be a confirmation that (i) the pollutant concentrations in the products covered by the order are below the threshold values of the attached Material Declaration, and (ii) the supplier has a sound knowledge of the pollutants in the entire scope of supply and has established reliable processes that comply with all applicable Ship Recycling Regulations and Conventions. If you have any questions or objections, please do not hesitate to contact MAN Energy Solutions at ship-recycling@man-es.com.
