Further comments from Editors and Reviewers (if any):

Dear anonymizováno,

I am pleased to inform you that your manuscript "Surgical management of tumours invading the inferior vena cava: A Delphi consensus document" has been accepted for publication. In due time, you will be contacted by the publisher who will inform you of the next steps in our publishing process, including copyediting and proofing. You will have the opportunity to review your article proof before publication. We appreciate your preference for the European Journal of Vascular and Endovascular Surgery and look forward to receiving more of your future research.

The accepted version of your manuscript will be shortly available as uncorrected pre-proofs online.

The publisher will send galley proofs to you shortly afterwards via email in PDF format. Please return proofs immediately and limit your changes to minor editorial or typesetting corrections only.

Please note that if your submission is a Research Letter, they are not typically published as Open Access. If this is something you would like to explore (perhaps because your institution has an agreement with Elsevier) then please contact the journal ejvesproduction@elsevier.com, further information can be found here:

https://service.elsevier.com/app/answers/detail/a_id/5999/supporthub/publishing/kw/open+access/

If you have not already done so, please follow the journal on 'X' (@EJVES_ESVS) where we highlight interesting and important papers.

Sincerely,

Frederico Bastos Gonçalves
Section editor, EJVES

At Elsevier, we want to help all our authors to stay safe when publishing. Please be aware of fraudulent messages requesting money in return for the publication of your paper. If you are publishing open access with Elsevier, bear in mind that we will never request payment before the paper has been accepted. We have prepared some guidelines (<https://www.elsevier.com/connect/authors-update/seven-top-tips-on-stopping-apc-scams>) that you may find helpful, including a short video on Identifying fake acceptance letters (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o5l8thD9XtE>). Please remember that you can contact Elsevier's Researcher Support team (<https://service.elsevier.com/app/home/supporthub/publishing/>) at any time if you have questions about your manuscript, and you can log into Editorial Manager to check the status of your manuscript (https://service.elsevier.com/app/answers/detail/a_id/29155/c/10530/supporthub/publishing/kw/status/).

In compliance with data protection regulations, you may request that we remove your personal registration details at any time. (Remove my information/details) [1]. Please contact the publication office if you have any questions.
