Předmět: BMC Psychiatry: Decision on your manuscript

Ref: Submission ID 6d5fd058-86be-41dc-a49a-c0da3331b1d3

Dear anonymizováno,

Re: "Transcranial direct current stimulation and cognitive training in the treatment of cognitive deficit in schizophrenia: a randomized controlled trial"

We're delighted to let you know that your manuscript has been accepted for publication in BMC Psychiatry.

Prior to publication, our production team will check the format of your manuscript to ensure that it conforms to the journal's requirements. They will be in touch shortly to request any necessary changes, or to confirm that none are needed.

Checking the proofs

Once we've prepared your paper for publication, you will receive a proof. At this stage, for the main text, only errors that have been introduced during the production process, or those that directly compromise the scientific integrity of the paper, may be corrected.

As the corresponding (or nominated) author, you are responsible for the accuracy of all content, including spelling of names and current affiliations.

To ensure prompt publication, your proofs should be returned within two working days.

Publication policies

Acceptance of your manuscript is conditional on all authors agreeing to our publication policies at: <https://www.springernature.com/gp/policies/editorial-policies>

Licence to Publish and Article Processing Charge

As the corresponding author of an accepted manuscript, your next steps will be to complete an Open Access Licence to publish on behalf of all authors, confirm your institutional affiliation, and arrange payment of your article-processing charge (APC). You will shortly receive an email with more information.

Once again, thank you for choosing BMC Psychiatry, and we look forward to publishing your article.

Kind regards,

Aditi Khare
Editor
BMC Psychiatry

Reviewer 2

The authors provided extensive revisions of the original manuscript offering insightful responses to all my concerns. Now the paper is improved as a whole and seems to be acceptable for publication.
