General conditions to take into account

What's next? Please review the technical specifications in this document. If no corrections are received within 3 business days, all the information given above is considered to be accurate. We want to make sure your optics are made right as much as you do.

Need to update your order? OPTOMAN accepts modifications to the order no later than 3 weeks before the expected dispatch date. Requested changes may result in a new scheduled dispatch date and/or price adjustments.

Changed your mind? OPTOMAN accepts cancellations, but we will need to invoice you for the actual costs incurred at the time you inform us of your decision to cancel the order.

All good? Sit back and relax. As soon as we have your order ready, you will receive the shipment tracking number and the final Invoice by e-mail.
